Detailed Action

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's remarks/arguments filed on 10/31/2007 regarding claims 1, 4-5, 9, 19-23, 25-26 have been considered. Claims 1, 4-5, 9, 19-23, 25-26 are currently pending and claims 2-3, 6-8, 10-18, 24 have been canceled by applicant.

EXAMINER'S STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The present application relates to providing a Voice-over-Internet Protocol processor for use in a telephone, including the unique functions of:

"wherein the instructions are configured such that when executed by the CPU, PCM coded speech data received by the PCM interface is transported to the external memory, read from the external memory by the processing core and compressed by the processing core and written back to the external memory, and voice data packets with such speech data are read from the external memory and forwarded to the 802.3 MAC and fed into the external network by the repeater, and voice data packets received by the Ethernet interface are transported to the external memory, read from the external memory by the processing core and decompressed by the processing core and written back to the external memory, and PCM coded speech data from the received voice data packets is transported by the PCM interface to the external voice codec, and wherein the internal bus, processing core, on-chip memory, PCM interface, Ethernet interface, and the external bus unit are integrated into a single chip.”

The closest prior art, Lamb (6,587,454), discloses a Voice-over-IP DSP chip that comprises a processor core, IEEE 802.x MAC/DSP circuits, a repeater and an internal bus for communicating signals. However, Lamb fails to anticipate or render obvious the above quoted limitations of the present application. This renders the claims allowable.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”
